The successful man

By Robert Louis Stevenson

*That man is a success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of children;
who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it,
whether by an improved poppy,
a perfect poem or a rescued soul;
who never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty
or failed to express it;
who looked for the best in others and gave the best he had.*
